DARK FEARS

NO ONE ESCAPES FROM THEIR FEARS

A person is blindfolded with a light-colored cloth, their hands tied behind their back. They are standing in a dark, dimly lit room. In the background, a doorway is visible, and a woman with long dark hair, wearing a plaid shirt over a white t-shirt and dark pants, stands in the doorway looking towards the blindfolded person. The scene is dramatically lit from the doorway, creating strong shadows.

SYNOPSIS

Martín is the leader of a gang of kidnappers who, pressed for the health of his son, decides to kidnap a wealthy young woman who lives with her father. When they ask for the ransom, they discover that he has disappeared.

While Javier, Martín's brother, faces the search for the father, Martín and the rest of the gang try to obtain information from the young woman at any cost.

Soon inexplicable events begin to occur and what seemed like a simple job quickly turns into a nightmare where each member of the band must fight to survive their worst fears.

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Dark Fears seeks to project the darkest corners of the mind, that place where our lowest and irrational feelings inhabit. Without realizing it, they take over our world and eventually corrode us.

The fact of having lived for several years with an anxiety disorder such as agoraphobia, which is the fear of fear, allowed me to relate in a different way with that feeling we all have. I have put a magnifying glass on it during those years and learned a lot. From that learning this story is born, as a need to show how many times without realizing it we are prisoners of our own fears.

CONTACT

A dark, moody photograph serves as the background. On the left, a person is seated in a wooden chair, their head completely covered by a coarse, light-colored burlap sack. They are wearing a white, short-sleeved garment. Their hands are visible, resting on the chair's armrests, and appear to be bound with white rope. On the right, another person stands, facing the seated figure. They are wearing a white, featureless mask and a dark, worn leather jacket over a light-colored shirt. The background is dark and indistinct, suggesting an interior space.
